

Sidney First Methodist Church is pleased to announce the Women's Ministry Spring Awakening with guest speaker Kristi Stephens.

Kristi Stephens and her husband Nathan have been married for 21 years and live with their four children in North Canton, Ohio. In this season of life, Kristi's days are full of books, projects, nature hikes, and homeschooling children.

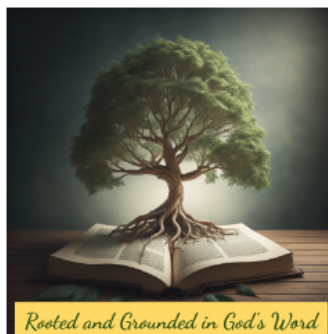

Kristi was trained as a Bible teacher at Cedarville University, and she has been privileged to serve as the women's ministry director for her local church for the past eleven years. Most days she's just trying not to spill her coffee or forget an appointment, and is constantly learning afresh that the only thing that's good in her is Jesus.
